

Accounting Software Company Announces Blog Site Highlighting Successful Company Practices

(September 27, 2013) (Chicago, IL)

AccountMate Software Corporation announced their new Blog website at their annual reseller conference. AccountMateBlog.com features entries that, “Highlight current events of interest to business owners and managers.” according to the website. Further it reads, “Learning about successful companies may give you ideas to make your company more successful.”

David Render, Chief Operating Officer of AccountMate, said in his announcement, “We already have 35 blog entries ranging from Closing a French Auto Plant to 3D Printing on Paper, from General Electric to Dow Chemical. New blog entries are added every week or even multiple times each week.” He continued, “This is not a site to sell our products, just share information that our clients and prospective clients can use as a jumping off point for creativity at their own companies.” The site is linked to AccountMate.com, the company’s website that showcases their heavily customizable accounting software.
