

AccountMate and BizNet Partner to Create a Powerful Analysis Module

PETALUMA, CA (April 14, 2011)— AccountMate Software Corporation and BizNet Software, Inc. have partnered to offer an AccountMate Business Analysis module. This fully-integrated module enables functionality that is especially appealing to anyone who uses spreadsheets and wants to gather and analyze their business information.

BizNet Software, Inc. focuses on Microsoft® Excel® reporting solutions and has been named a “Best of Breed” Business Performance Management solution by Business Finance Magazine. The power of BizNet financial reporting for mid-market clients enables them to operate in Excel which is familiar to them and allows them to access their real time corporate financial data.

AccountMate Software is a global software vendor of modifiable business financial software that has incorporated this BizNet functionality into its latest module, AccountMate Business Analysis Powered by BizNet and Excel.

This partnership between AccountMate and BizNet Software assures that AccountMate clients can easily build or create custom reports that can help accelerate decision-making with in-depth financial reporting. AccountMate Business Analysis also gives the ability to create a single Excel template for multiple report generations. Its pre-built drag and drop Excel functions, report creation and drill down capabilities provide commonly-accessed configurations to help clients save time, money and start delivering results immediately. David Dierke, President and CEO of AccountMate, sums up this new partnership saying, “Time-saving and powerful analysis capabilities are introduced in our newest module, AccountMate Business Analysis Powered by BizNet. AccountMate is extremely proud of the joint venture of AccountMate and BizNet which has resulted in the delivery of this module which creates a self-sufficient environment in which our customers can create their own valuable reports.”
